A. Fregosi's Bottle of Liquor Condemned and He Waived Examination on the Charge of Keeping and

There was a concert of "guiltys" in city court this morning, when four men charged with keeping gambling machines came in and paid fines, while the court ordered the destruction of the machines. The charge against them had been chang-ed. In the first place they were ac-cused under the special "Klondyke" en-actment, but the charge was altered to that of allowing people to gamble on machines in their possession, a general statute. The respondents were A. Diver-si, A. Giacaino, Wallace Jondro and M.

The Diversi case was set for trial this morning, but the action of the respondents changed the plans. The fine in each case was $10, and the costs were $8,31, with the exception of the Diversi case, in which witnesses had been summoned to appear. Mr. Diversi paid $19.51. Under order of the court, Chief Brown will go about the task of de-stroying the five machines this after-noon. About $175 will thus be consigned to the junk heap.
